Conversation Piece

From £13,392

The Conversation Piece sets a new standard of seating arrangements. Originally the "borne settee", a luxurious circular sofa from the 19th century which was often found in opulent homes and public spaces, it became a status symbol during the Gilded Age, allowing guests to view their surroundings while simultaneously holding discreet conversation. It was often referred to as the "divan de milieu."

Key features of this awe-inspiring piece are the elaborate deep buttoning, the decorative ruching along the bottom and seat joints, and glittering nail-head details that embellish it. Its ability to accommodate multiple seats extends its versatility. Unique bespoke versions of this Conversation Piece have been crafted to seat over twenty guests, making it the perfect cross between a Banquette and a Conversation Piece. The Conversation Piece is unique, a pure fusion of artistry, luxury and comfort. In a nutshell, our iconic Conversation Piece doesn't just occupy space; it transforms it. It becomes the focal point, prompting both discussions and admiration.
